19 SURETY BOND

20 Courtroom: 11
21 Judge: Hon. Otis D. Wright, II
22 Magistrate Judge: Hon, Jacqueline Chooljian

23 The individuals subject to the appellate bond have used their best-faith 24 efforts to secure a surety bond by the Court's July 15, 2013 deadline. While the 25 individuals subject to the bond were able to secure a bond on July 16, 2013—after 26 a one-day unexpected delay in the confirmation of a wire transfer—the surety,
27 during its final review, refused to allow the bond agent to release the bond in light 28 of the conditions imposed by the Court's June 11, 2013, order requiring certain individuals to post an additional bond in the amount of $135,933.66 and acknowledge certain conditions. (ECF No. 177.) The surety's concerns were raised for the first time on Tuesday, July 16, 2013, and after efforts to address the surety's concerns, it does not appear to the individuals subject to the additional appellate bond will be able to address the surety's concerns with the Court's order.

The individuals subject to the additional appellate bond are informed that obtaining an additional surety bond is not a realistic near-term option in light of the conditions imposed in the Court's order. Under L.R. 65-10, a cashier's check may be deposited with the Clerk in lieu of a bond or undertaking requiring a personal or corporate surety. The individuals subject to the bond respectfully request the Court to enter an order directing the Clerk to accept a cashier's check in lieu of a surety bond in satisfaction of the Court's order. The individuals subject to the additional appellate bond believe that they could have a cashier's check deposited with the Clerk no later than five business days from the date the Court enters an order directing the Clerk to accept cash collateral in lieu of a surety bond. The individuals subject to the bond apologize to the Court for this delay, and again would like to emphasize that they are doing everything in their power to comply with the Court's order in a timely manner.
